Lunch

12:30 PM - Closing
Program

Cost: $15.00
*(Includes seminar's
participatory fees,
any materials, &
lunch)*

Information:

This 60 minute presentation by Tom Wright covers the basics of Social Security and Medicare, along with insights into key filing decisions facing employees approaching retirement. These programs are the foundation of retirement in America, yet are not well understood. Attendees will gain important "need-to-know" information that will be of benefit personally, and also will strengthen their ability to assist older employees who want to better understand their own upcoming filing decisions.

Presenter Bio:

Tom Wright is the founder and lead trainer for the Turning 65 Workshop. He spent over 35 years in the financial services industry, where he had experience in both employee benefits and retirement planning. Tom has been quoted in Kiplinger's and Fortune magazines, and the Boston Globe. He's also done seminar presentations throughout the northeast on retirement topics, including Social Security & Medicare.
