Information:

Director Hamilton will be reviewing the new tax rate setting process implemented in 2015 including discussing the successes and issues with the new system. He will also be open to discussing other subjects relative to the topics managed by his department.

The Municipal and Property Division establishes and approves municipal, school, county, state and village district tax rates. Provides technical assistance relative to taxation and finance to the over 500 political subdivisions of the state and provides general supervision over municipal tax collectors.

Other services performed include:

- Prescribing a uniform chart of accounts for all municipalities;
- Establishing a standard technical assistance manual for use by municipalities;
- Reviewing trustees reports of trust funds in conjunction with the Department of Justice Charitable Trust Unit;
- Conducting workshops and seminars for municipal officials, including selectmen, budget committees, trustees of trust funds, tax collectors, and school officials.
